The Stern Center is pleased to offer our clients and their families a new way to connect for instruction - online tutoring via our eLearning platform.

Our highly-trained and qualified teachers are available to work with students on a weekly basis. Students receive the same level of interaction, support, customized instruction, and feedback as if attending on-site.

Parents or adult clients will receive detailed reports to outline progress.

Our instructors use research-based and science-driven methods and programs (i.e., Wilson Language, Orton-Gillingham, etc.) to deliver customized instruction based on the needs of the student.

To better serve our students, we use a variety of evidence-based programs to provide the best learning experience for the specific area of instruction.

Online tutoring is recommended for students Grades 4 and up.

About our Professional Team:

- Highly-trained, qualified teachers, many with advanced degrees
- Employ evidence-based teaching practices
- Provide one-to-one customized instruction or academic coaching

Additional Benefits:

An instructor is carefully matched to meet your child’s individual needs. Students can feel confident in working with the same instructor every week.

Instruction is customized for the student – we don’t “plug” a student into a program; we develop a program to fit each student’s unique needs.

Academic Coaching provides instruction in executive function (time management, tackling large assignments, prioritizing, and organizing asks) and generalization of these skills related to schoolwork.

Technical Requirements:

- Laptop or desktop PC or Mac
- High speed internet
- Camera for video conferencing
- Microphone
- Optional: Headset with microphone (useful for school/public settings)

 To verify device compatibility, we will perform a quick 15-20 minute trial run prior to finalizing a contract.

About the Stern Center for Language and Learning

The nonprofit Stern Center for Language and Learning is dedicated to learning for all because we know that all great minds don’t think alike. The Stern Center is committed to helping individuals identify their learning strengths and needs as well as to finding solutions that allow everyone to learn. Through evaluations, instruction, professional learning, and research, children and adults learn about themselves and are better equipped to reach their full potential. Scholarships are available.
